INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY
REPORT ON PATENTABILITY
(SEPARATE SHEET)

International application No.

PCT/EP2004/005042

Re Item I

Basis of the opinion

The application is directed to

- (i) N-azabicycyl isoquinoline-3-carboxamides (I) (claim 1),
- (ii) a process for preparing compounds (I) (claim 2),
- (iii) the medical use of compounds (I) (claims 3-4 and 6-7),
- (iv) the corresponding pharmaceutical composition (claim 5), and
- (v) a method of treatment (claim 8).

Re Item III

Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

Claim 8 relates to subject-matter considered by this Authority to be covered by the provisions of Rule 67.1(iv) PCT. Consequently, no opinion will be formulated with respect to the industrial applicability of the subject-matter of these claims (Article 34(4)(a)(i) PCT).

Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Rule 66.2(a)(ii) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Reference is made to the following documents.

- D1: WO 02/085901 A, 31 October 2002.
- D2: WO 03/037896 A, 8 May 2003.
- D3: WO 03/022856 A, 20 March 2003.
- D4: WO 03/072578 A, 4 September 2003.
- D5: WO 2004/052461 A, 24 June 2004.
- D6: WO 2004/052348 A, 24 June 2004.

D4 to D6 were published after the priority date. Under the presumption that the priority is valid for the claimed matter these documents are not considered as prior art under Rule 64.1 PCT.

2. Novelty

- 2.1 D1 to D3 relate to N-azabicycyl carboxamides as $\alpha 7$ nAChR agonists. The present compounds (I) differ from the compounds of D1 and D2 through their isoquinoline moiety, and from the compounds of D3 insofar as their azabicycyl moiety is represented by 1-azabicyclo[2.2.2]octane and 1-azabicyclo[2.2.1]-heptane rather than 7-azabicyclo[2.2.1]-heptane. The present claimed matter is thus novel vis-à-vis D1 to D3.
- 2.2 D4 to D6 relate to further $\alpha 7$ nAChR agonists, their preparation, and pharmaceutical use. The compounds of these documents comprise already the present compounds (I) (D4, claim 1; D5, claims 1 and 3; D6, claim 1), and the documents disclose specific examples within the overlapping range (D4: examples 13, 14; page 120, claim 8; page 123, claim 9; page 125, claim 11; pages 127-128, claim 12, etc.; D5: claim 4; D6: claim 3). In the regional phase, these documents will most likely become relevant to the question of novelty of present claims 1-8 insofar as the whole overlapping range is concerned.
- 3 Inventive Step
- 3.1 The application describes the synthesis of certain compounds (I) which according to the description act as $\alpha 7$ nAChR agonists (page 3) and are expected to be useful in the treatment of psychotic disorders, neurodegenerative disorders, and further pathological conditions.
- 3.2 D3 is at present considered as most relevant state of the art, because it shows already a N-azabicycyl isoquinoline-3-carboxamide (example 9) of the desired activity. The present compounds (I) differ from the compounds of D3 merely insofar as their azabicycyl moiety is represented by 1-azabicyclo[2.2.2]octane and 1-azabicyclo[2.2.1]heptane rather than 7-azabicyclo[2.2.1]-heptane. In view of D3 the problem underlying the present application may be seen in the provision of further compounds which act as $\alpha 7$ nAChR agonists. The documents D1 and D2 disclose further $\alpha 7$ nAChR agonists and show that 1-azabicyclo[2.2.2]octane and 1-azabicyclo[2.2.1]heptane moieties are compatible with the desired activity (cf. D1, claim 1, examples 1a, 2a, 2b; D2, claim 1, and e.g. examples 1-3). Due to the very close structural relationship between the claimed compounds and the compounds of D3 in combination with the teaching of D1 and/or D2, the claimed compounds would appear to represent merely obvious alternatives of the compounds of D3. In the absence of any substantiated unexpected effect(s) of the claimed compounds in comparison with the closest related compound of D3 (i.e. N-[(1S,2R,4R)-1-azabicyclo[2.2.1]hept-2-yl]isoquinoline-3-carboxamide dihydrochloride versus example 9 of D3), no inventive activity is seen in the claimed matter. Hence, the claims 1-8 do, at present, not meet the requirements of inventive step.

4 Industrial Applicability

For the assessment of present claim 8 on the question whether it is industrially applicable, no unified criteria exist in the PCT Contracting States. The patentability can also be dependent upon the formulation of the claims. The EPO, for example, does not recognize as industrially applicable the subject-matter of claims to the use of a compound in medical treatment, but may allow, however, claims to a known compound for first use in medical treatment and the use of such a compound for the manufacture of a medicament for a new medical treatment.
